

is in the building.

PRESIDENT: He is formally excused, however, from this Chamber.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Well, can we not seek him out? He is in the building.

PRESIDENT: You may call him, if you wish. If he arrives, he may vote.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Can we ask that the Sergeant-at-Arms search out Senator DeCamp?

PRESIDENT: He is not...he is excused as far as this desk is concerned at the present time. Others means may be taken to get him here, but...Roll call vote has been requested. Without objection, I'll have the roll called in reverse order, Senator Hoagland, if that is...Senator Vickers.

SENATOR VICKERS: Mr. President, I think our rules say that we can ask for a member to come back whether they are excused or not.

PRESIDENT: Not if he is excused.

SENATOR VICKERS: That is not the way that I read the rules.

PRESIDENT: Well, that is the way I am interpreting the rule. If it would help any, the Chair would ask for the roll to be called in reverse order. Senator Hoagland, do you want me to call it in reverse order?

SENATOR HOAGLAND: Yes, that would be fine.

PRESIDENT: That would give you time for Senator DeCamp to get here, maybe. The Clerk will...motion is to advance LR 32. Please maintain silence so the Clerk may hear your oral vote. Roll call vote has been requested. The Clerk will call the roll. May we have quiet please (gavel) underneath the balconies. Call the roll, Mr. Clerk, in reverse order.

CLERK: (Roll call vote taken. See pages 1611-1612 of the Legislative Journal.) 26 ayes, 21 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to advance.
